

Confused About Charting Your Career Path?

Looking for Direction Regarding Graduate School?

Unsure About How to Make Decisions Regarding
These Issues?

We Have a Course for You!

PY 3500 Personal & Professional Decision Making
Spring 2017 * Lisa Whitten, Ph.D. * MW 3:50

The course focuses on:

- decision making, careers,
- developing your professional identity,
- applying to and succeeding in graduate school,
- the value of joining professional organizations,
- presenting at conferences, and
- other issues that often receive minimal attention in other courses.

I've planned varied guest speakers - including alumni - and some interesting projects.

Prerequisites are PY 2010 (Intro), 24 credits in Psychology, OR my permission.

The course can serve as a 3000 level elective for Psychology majors, and could be a useful free elective for students from other majors.
