

CROSSING BORDERS/ERASING BORDERS

ACTIVISTS AND ADVOCATES ADDRESS GENDER AND IMMIGRATION

November 5th, 2014
NAB 1100
SUNY College at Old Westbury
5 - 7 PM

This panel discussion will feature national and local activists who explore how gender shapes the immigration process. Men and women often have distinct paths to the U.S., and once here, they can encounter distinct challenges. Panelists will look at domestic violence, the Dream Act, getting a college education, work and more—and they will share what their organizations do to effect justice for all living in the U.S.

NANCY KELLY
Co-Managing Director
Harvard Immigration and Refugee Clinic, at Greater
Boston Legal Services

LAURA LEMUS
Special Projects Coordinator
LI Wins

ANITA HALASZ
Executive Director
LI Jobs with Justice

LUBA CORTES
Youth Organizer
Make the Road New York

Activists and Advocates Address Gender and Immigration is being organized with support of a SUNY Diversity and Academic Excellence Award, in collaboration with the Women's Center and the First-Year Experience Program.

Questions:
Prof. Carol Quirke
quirkec@oldwestbury.edu
Prof. Jacqueline
Emery emeryj@oldwestbury.edu