

Invites you to a presentation on

The Bartered Stories of Luis López Nieves

Best-selling Puerto Rican author Luis López Nieves will speak on the role of history in two of his books.

The book of short stories The True Death of Juan Ponce de León (2000) and the novel Voltaire's Heart (2005) have won the National Literature Prize. Seva, is one of Puerto Rico's most renowned and bestselling books. In 2009 he published his latest novel, Galileo's Silence (El silencio de Galileo), simultaneously in Spain and in Latin America.

Presentation in English

Tuesday, December 2, 2014
1100, New Academic Building
SUNY Old Westbury
3:00PM

Program Organized by Dr. Ruben Gonzalez. To attend presentation contact gonzalezr@oldwestbury.edu

SUNY College at Old Westbury, P.O. Box 210, Old Westbury, NY 11568-0210