

Meet the Street Team

The RA position has helped me develop as a person because it is a great deal of responsibility. It challenges your ability to manage time, having patience, and being mindful of others needs.

Britnee Jackson (Hall #5)

“Confidence was something that I have lacked for many years but the RA position has helped me become more confident in myself and the decisions I have made”.

-Barbara Rodriguez (Hall #3)

“When I was a Freshman in College I had a bad experience with my RA. I chose to apply and become a better one”

- Jonathan Rodriguez (Hall

#1)

“I have become more mature through the position and humble when working with others”.

-Angelica Quow (Hall #5)

Meet the Street Team

“I was an introvert my first year here at Old Westbury. I stayed in my room most of the time and kept to myself. Becoming an RA has taught to be more open and not as shy as I was. Now I can’t walk through the hallways without saying hi to someone.”

-Kayla Diaz (Hall #1)

“As a first-year RA, I have learned a lot about how to work with residents that have different perspectives from my own”.

-Marilynn Bonilla (Hall #3)

“Being an RA has taught me that wherever I go, I should always try to lead by example and be a great role model to others”.

-Corynne Alexis (Hall #4)

This quote by Confucius represents my outlook on the RA position: “Choose a job you love, and you will never have to work a day in your life.”

-RA Awa Sow (Hall #5)
