

Meet the Street Team

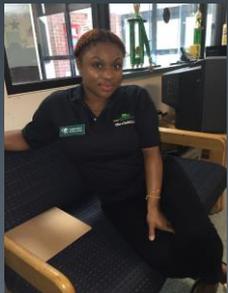

“The RA position has helped me develop as a person because it is a great deal of responsibility. The position challenges your ability to manage time, having patience, and being mindful of the needs of others”. - RA Britnee

“Confidence was something that I lacked for many years but the RA position has helped me become more confident in myself and the decisions I have made”. – RA Barbara

*“When I was a Freshman in College, I had a bad experience with my RA. I chose to apply and become a better one for future students”.
- RA Jonathan*

“I have become more mature through the position and humble when working with others”. -RA Angelica

Meet the Street Team

“I was an introvert my first year at Old Westbury. I stayed in my room most of the time and kept to myself. Becoming a RA has taught to be more open and not as shy. Now I can’t walk through the hallways without saying hi to someone.” –RA Kayla

*“As a first-year RA, I have learned alot about how to work with residents that have different perspectives from my own”.
-RA Marilyn*

*“Being a RA has taught me that wherever I go, I should always try to lead by example and be a great role model for others”.
- RA Corynne*

*This quote by Confucius represents my outlook on the RA position;
“Choose a job you love, and you will never have to work a day in your life.” -RA Awa*
