

RESIDENTIAL LIFE MID SEMESTER BULLETIN

Dear Residential Student,

As the semester heads toward its halfway mark, we wanted to take this opportunity to send out the following information to all residential students. Please read this in its entirety carefully. If any of these aspects are not met by the end of the Spring Semester (May 18), your Fall 2020 residential room assignment can potentially be cancelled. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Office of Residential Life during regular business hours (M-F, 9am -5pm) at (516) 876-3210 or come by the office located at the Campus Center, K-100.

Spring 2019 Housing Checklist:

While the list below states the most common situations, this list is not meant to be exhaustive and may be influenced by individual student statuses. To continue in housing for the Fall 2020 semester,

Task
• You must be a full-time status student (12 Credits or more)
• You are eligible for campus housing only if you are in good academic standing - 2.0 Cumulative GPA or above by Fall semester
• You must be financially clear with the Bursar Office
• You must be in good judicial standing.

Fall 2020 Class Registration Schedule:

- To continue in housing for the Fall 2020 semester, you must be a full-time status student (12 Credits or more).

Make the Grade!

- You are eligible for campus housing only if you are in good academic standing - 2.0 Cumulative OW GPA or above
- If you are concerned about a course, then discuss it with the faculty and the earlier the better.
- Please note: Exceptions ARE NOT automatically approved if you fall under a 2.0 cumulative OW GPA to stay in housing. Students looking for assistance must go through the First Year Office (for freshmen in their first semester at OW) and Academic Advising (for transfers in their first semester at OW).

If you feel as though you are struggling academically, you should know you are not alone. In fact, we have a host of services (listed on the last page) for students that provide exactly this type of support and they are free to use; so take advantage!

Fall 2020 Bill Payment:

You must be financially clear with the Office of the Bursar

The following methods are available for payment:

- Credit Card: Old Westbury accepts VISA, MasterCard and Discover credit card payments which are processed online using the web credit card payment option available on your E-Bill which can be accessed via ConnectOW.
- Check: Check payments can be made on-line via the ConnectOW portal.
- Scholarship Check: Place scholarship checks in separate sealed envelope with appropriate documentation and forward to the Office of Bursar at the address below. Include the student's identification number ("700" number) with all submissions.

Office of the Bursar
Campus Center, Room H-100
Phone: (516)876-3168

Be Good!

- You must be in good judicial standing.
- The vast majority are able to do this...Thank you!

Living together can sometimes be difficult, the rules help to create and maintain an environment that respects the rights of all residents. If you have outstanding sanctions please reach out to the hearing officer (typically your RHD, if the violation occurred in the halls). If you have questions regarding your judicial status, please reach out to the Office of Student Conduct:

Help Manage the Stress

Feeling Stressed? A little overwhelmed? These feeling about school are common reactions to the pressure of college life. Midterms and finals can be especially stressful. If you are feeling this way why not talk to someone about it? The staff at Counseling and Psychological Wellness Services (CPWS) will be happy to listen.

Student Union Building
Room LL100 (located off the Rotunda)
Phone: 516-876-3053
Hours Monday - Friday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Academic Support Resources:

The College offers a number of academic support services ranging from academic advising to tutoring:

<https://www.oldwestbury.edu/academics/support>. Study Skills, Tutoring Services and other support services are designed to improve academic and non-academic development and skills for program students are provided through a variety of methods designed to effectively assess, strengthen and improve academic and personal development.

All staff and faculty associated with these functions work together to assist students in understanding and meeting the College's requirements and in obtaining timely, accurate information and assistance. While the list is not exhaustive, we hope that you will use these services as needed to address any academic concerns or issues.
